

Objectives

After training, the participants would be able to understand the

1. Overview of the data management in conducting research
2. Statistical analyses
3. Appropriate presentation of the research information
4. Interpreting and inference making on the research findings